

Kestenberg Rabinowicz Partners LLP introduces Marshall Egelnick as Managing Partner

KRP Founding Partner Ralph Rabinowicz to maintain his current client-services and business-development responsibilities

Markham, Ontario; November 28, 2014—Kestenberg Rabinowicz Partners LLP (www.krp.ca)—one of the Greater Toronto Area’s leading accounting firms for entrepreneurs—is proud to introduce Marshall Egelnick as its new Managing Partner.

Marshall, a KRP partner since 1980, will divide his efforts between core leadership duties such as team management, business development and growth strategy, while continuing to manage a diverse client portfolio.

Marshall brings nearly 40 years of experience as a chartered accountant to the position, as well as familiarity across a broad range of industries including manufacturing, contracting, not-for-profit organizations and professional services. His core expertise includes tax compliance and planning, financial management, trust and estate planning and assurance.

“I’m very excited to assume this new role as we continue working to reinforce KRP’s status as a leading provider of accounting, tax and financial planning services to entrepreneurs,” Marshall said. “While our titles might change, our team of problem solvers is just as dedicated as ever to helping our clients manage risk and ensure financial success at every turn. Our commitment to that ideal is unwavering and will continue as we move forward.”

As part of the management shift, KRP Founding Partner Ralph Rabinowicz will continue to maintain his current client-service and business-development responsibilities.

“Marshall has been one of the cornerstones of our firm for decades, so his promotion to Managing Partner was a natural next step in KRP’s evolution,” Ralph said. “I look forward to working with him for many years to come as we find innovative new ways to help our clients achieve business success.”
